Nurse-led Improvement Projects in Digital Health 2021

Cardiff University Using nurse-led digital technologies to increase the uptake of sexual health services among 16-18 year olds	50,000
Cheshire and Wirral Partnership NHS Foundation Trust Using virtual reality to improve access for healthcare investigations/treatments for people with learning disabilities.	43,258
Coventry University on behalf of Nursing Now Challenge This funding will build a clinical virtual simulated placement, to develop leadership and digital literacy, in early-career nurses in the United Kingdom and overseas.	99,935
East London NHS Foundation Trust This project aims to support nurses to improve the quality of documentation in patients' electronic health records using EMIS Read Codes.	25,000
King's College London and King's College Hospital We are developing a digital peer-to-peer support programme for family of intensive care unit survivors. Our project will also test the acceptability of the digital peer-to-peer support programme to family and feasibility of its delivery.	50,323
Lewis-Manning Hospice Care We wish to expand a virtual hospice service we've successfully piloted, increasing accessibility and impact and using technology innovatively to transform end of life care.	47,715
NHS Lothian Improving wound management patient outcomes and patient experience though data driven, Nurse led Quality Improvement initiatives.	50,000
Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust Ward nurses reported skills deficits when managing spinal surgery patients. This digital nurse-led education programme will educate and empower nurses in vital motor function assessment.	51,389
SBH Scotland We will agree upon and create evidence-informed datasets, holding quantifiable information from various sources, rendered to chart progress along a Transition pathway - from Readiness through to Completion and onto Success.	59,918
Solent NHS Trust Introducing digital platforms to the Solent NHS Trust CAMHS West ADHD Pathway to provide timely and effective screening and monitoring of ADHD symptoms.	12,904
St Wilfred's Hospice (Eastbourne) A project supporting nurses to lead development of IT systems, training, and tools to improve patient care including patient apps and a new virtual consultation platform.	44,090

Sussex Community NHS Foundation Trust (2) Empowering Nurses with skills, enthusiasm and support to become 'Digital Nurses' - leading, enabling and encouraging front line staff to embrace and embed digital care.	48,650
Swansea University Development of a digital package that increases nursing students' knowledge of deaf awareness to improve healthcare experiences of people who are deaf.	38,536
Ulster University / South Eastern Health & Social Care Develop and feasibility test a nurse-led video-consultation clinic for head and neck cancer patients, with the integration of an electronic disease-specific holistic needs assessment tool.	25,484
University Hospitals Sussex NHS Foundation Trust This project aims to transform the way wound monitoring is performed within the Trust using an innovative, patient oriented technology solution.	44,652